

After-School Activities for 2009-2010

Richard Warren Middle School

The co-curricular program's purpose is to provide students with experiences and activities that enhance their educational experience. Students may attend any sessions at no cost and may choose from the following activities. Students MUST turn in this sheet to participate and a parent/guardian signature is required. No transportation is provided to or from Warren for this program, so please make sure to make arrangements in advance. Most start in October!

| Literacy Book Club
Jennifer Smith
Do you like to read? Do you like to read good middle school literature? If so, this could be the club for you. The Heartland Award for Excellence in Young Adult Literature wants you to read 3 of the 10 books up for next year's nomination. You can pick three or you can read all 10 books. Then, you vote on line for your favorite author, and the one you want to attend next year's KU Literature Festival in October. Seventh graders may get the opportunity to attend next year's Festival if funds are available. The morning time slot is for those that do sports after school but would still like to participate in the club. Limited to 20 students; 2 nd and 3 rd Quarters only. | Tuesdays 3:00-3:45 or Thursday mornings from 7:10-7:50 | Rm. 228 |
| Viking Voices
Shane Long
This group consists of 7 th and 8 th graders who share interest and the desire to participate in a choir that works on music outside of the classroom atmosphere. Students must have good participation grades, a willingness to work with others, and a genuine interest in vocal music and ensemble singing. The group will sing diverse repertoire and is only open to students notified by Mr. Long or on an audition basis. | Tuesdays, 3:00-4:00 | Choir Room |
| Percussion (band students only)
Jaye George
Beginning Percussion (Mondays): Only open to students notified by Ms. George
Advanced Percussion (Wednesdays): Only open to students notified by Ms. George | Mondays & Wednesdays, 3:00-4:00 | Band Room |
| Anime
Stephanie Smith
Anime: Allows a cross section of interested middle school artists and Japanese enthusiasts time to discuss interests, share Anime novels. We teach some basic drawing ideas, story creation, group activities...a card tournament or two...etc. Limited to 12-15 per semester. | Thursdays, 3:00-4:00 | Rm. 225 |
| Card Playing Club
